

Sports President

The Sports President will be an equal member of the Union's Sabbatical Officer team responsible for representing and championing the rights and views of all 17,000+ students at the University of Stirling.

The University of Stirling Student Sports Union President is a fixed-term 12-month elected role, based in Stirling, with an annual salary of £20,800 (28 days holiday pro rata). Sabbatical Officers will be working around 35 hours a week, with some weekend and evening work, depending on the needs of the role and priorities for the year.

All newly elected Sabbatical Officers must be available to begin their roles from 1st June 2023 for a full-time induction and handover period. The induction will continue throughout the summer months with training and introductory meetings.

If you have any questions regarding this, please email Natalie Hay, Democracy & Representation Coordinator, natalie.hay@stir.ac.uk.

Am I eligible to stand for Sports President?

Any matriculated University of Stirling student can stand in the Union Elections, whether you are in the middle of your studies or due to graduate in June 2023.

If you are a mid-studies Undergraduate, if elected you will need to arrange to take a year-long leave of absence from your studies from June 2023 and return to your degree in June 2024.

If you are a Postgraduate Taught student, we can support the conclusion of your programme alongside your elected role.
