

Sports Participation and Engagement Volunteer Officer

The Sports Participation and Engagement Volunteer Officer shall sit on the Union's Executive Council, alongside the Sabbatical Officers, representing and championing the rights and views of all 17,000+ students at the University of Stirling.

The University of Stirling Sports Union Sports Participation and Engagement Volunteer Officer is a fixed-term 12-month voluntary elected role, operating within the Sports Union Zone. The Volunteer Officer roles are designed to be flexible and fit around your studies, with all core responsibilities taking no more than 10 hours a month.

All newly elected Volunteer Officers will begin their roles on 1st June 2023, and will be supported with induction and training throughout.

If you have any questions regarding this, please email Natalie Hay, Democracy & Representation Coordinator, natalie.hay@stir.ac.uk.

Am I eligible to stand for Sports Participation and Engagement Volunteer Officer?

For the Volunteer Officer roles, you need to be a matriculated University of Stirling student at the time of the Union Elections, and until June 2024 at least.

What does the Sports Participation and Engagement Volunteer Officer role involve?

- To encourage all students, but particularly those who have previously not been involved, to participate in Sports Union activity, with a particular focus on improving non-competitive and social participation within sport and physical activity.
- To work with the Sports President to develop new ideas and initiatives to encourage active participation in physical activity.
- To research and identify areas for improvement with regards to engagement and develop new initiatives to help foster a more engaged sporting community.
- To work with the Sports President and other Sports Union Executive to help organise the end-of-year Sports Ball.
- Deliver change projects and campaigns based on your manifesto.
- Ensure the implementation of, and adherence to, an effective Equality, Diversity and Inclusion policy.
