

Vice President Communities

The Vice President Communities will be an equal member of the Union's Sabbatical Officer team responsible for representing and championing the rights and views of all 17,000+ students at the University of Stirling.

The University of Stirling Student Union Vice President Communities is a fixed-term 12-month elected role, based in Stirling, with an annual salary of £20,800 (28 days holiday pro rata). Sabbatical Officers will be working around 35 hours a week, with some weekend and evening work, depending on the needs of the role and priorities for the year.

All newly elected Sabbatical Officers must be available to begin their roles from 1st June 2023 for a full-time induction and handover period. The induction will continue throughout the summer months with training and introductory meetings.

If you have any questions regarding this, please email Natalie Hay, Democracy & Representation Coordinator, natalie.hay@stir.ac.uk.

Am I eligible to stand for Vice President Communities?

Any matriculated University of Stirling student can stand in the Union Elections, whether you are in the middle of your studies or due to graduate in June 2023.

If you are a mid-studies Undergraduate, if elected you will need to arrange to take a year-long leave of absence from your studies from June 2023 and return to your degree in June 2024.

If you are a Postgraduate Taught student, we can support the conclusion of your programme alongside your elected role.

What does the Vice President Communities role involve?

- As part of the Sabbatical Officer team, provide the overall political leadership of the Union.
- Act as the lead Societies contact and continually develop, support and guide Societies within the Union.
- Ensure an effective strategy is in place for recruitment, retention and reward for Student Volunteers.
- Campaign and coordinate the personal, and professional, development of students in their time at University in order to enhance their employability, student experience and wider civic engagement.
- Deliver change projects and campaigns based on your manifesto.

STUDENT UNION
ELECTIONS 2023

- Ensure the implementation of, and adherence to, an effective Equality, Diversity and Inclusion policy.
- Be the main point of contact and provide support to the Community Volunteer Officers and campaigns to ensure the provision of appropriate events for these groups and their enhanced representation.
- Attend all appropriate training events and conferences to ensure familiarity with their role and current issues affecting students.
- As a Trustee of the Union, to adhere to the expectations and rules in relation to being a trustee, which can be found here.

Key Students' Union Meetings	Key University Meetings
Trustee Board (and sub-committees)	University Court
General Meetings	Student Experience Committee
Executive Council
Communities Zone (and sub-committee)

Who will I be working with?

The Sabbatical Officers will be working with a wide range of internal and external relationships, these include:

Students	Students' Union	University	External
Students	Chief Executive	Vice Chancellor	NUS
Community Zone Members	Union Managers	University Secretary	NUS Scotland
Community Volunteer Officers	Union Coordinators	University Deans	Local Politicians
Societies		Executive Directors	Local Organisations
		Student Services Hub	Stirlingshire Voluntary Enterprise

What are the benefits of the role?

- Achieve political, social and educational change that will have a lasting impact on the student experience at the University of Stirling.
- Gain in-depth knowledge of the Students' Union, the University of Stirling, and the Higher Education sector.
- Training and personal development opportunities tailored to the individual role.
- Gain experience of leading, developing and supporting campaigns for change and shaping the students' experience at Stirling.

STUDENT UNION
ELECTIONS 2023

- Develop transferable skills, such as leadership, project management, and professional communication, whilst also gaining experience in leading a student-led organisation.
- The Sabbatical Officer role will also be documented on your academic transcript.
- Each of the four Sabbatical Officers will receive an annual salary of £20,800, paid monthly.

Where can I get further information about the role?

If you have any questions regarding this role, you can contact the following people for more information:

- Jess Reid, Vice President Communities 2022/23 (communities.union@stir.ac.uk)
- Jordyn Austin, Activities and Volunteer Coordinator (jordyn.austin@stir.ac.uk)
- Al Lawley-Powell, Chief Executive Officer (al.lawley-powell@stir.ac.uk)

I want to stand for Vice President Communities, what next?

1. Submit Nomination

Nominations will open at 10:00 GMT on 31st January 2023, you can submit your nomination online through stirlingstudentunion/elections where you'll be asked to provide:

- Your candidate photo
- Your manifesto
- Download, complete and return the Officer Code of Conduct form to natalie.hay@stir.ac.uk

The deadline for you to complete your nomination is 12:00 GMT on 14th February 2023.

2. Nomination Confirmation

Once your nomination has been submitted and you have returned your completed Officer Code of Conduct form, we will confirm your nomination via email.

3. Candidate Briefing

Following the close of nominations, you will be invited to a Candidate Briefing where the Deputy Returning Officer shall communicate all important information to you on the Election process and answer any questions. If you cannot attend this meeting, you can send a representative on your behalf.

4. Candidate Support

There is support available to all candidates, including access to a range of candidate guides which can be found here.

STUDENT UNION
ELECTIONS 2023

We would also strongly encourage all Sabbatical Candidates to arrange a time to speak with the current Sabbatical Officer or a member of staff within the Students' Union. You can arrange this one-to-one meeting via the Union Elections Booking page. You can use this meeting to find out more about the Vice President Communities role, and the Students' Union can offer advice on your manifesto and campaign planning while answering any of your questions.

5. Campaigning and Voting Period

Campaigning begins at 10:00 GMT on the 21st of February. Voting then opens at 10:00 GMT on the 28th of February and closes at 17:00 GMT on the 2nd of March with results being announced the following day.

If you have any questions regarding the Elections more generally, please email Natalie Hay, Democracy & Representation Coordinator, natalie.hay@stir.ac.uk.

STUDENT UNION
ELECTIONS 2023